2022 Annual Conference

Call for Sponsors and Exhibitors

The AML Annual Local Government Conference occurs each year in Anchorage. This year, the conference will be held at the Dena'ina Center from December 7-9, 2022. Our annual conference is the premier meeting for municipal officials. Over 400 AML members will convene to network, learn and strategize together.

In conjunction with the AML Annual Conference, AML Affiliate Groups will hold their annual meetings at the Dena'ina Center during this week: Alaska Conference of Mayors, Alaska Municipal Management Association, Alaska Association of Municipal Clerks, Alaska Government Finance Officers Association and the Alaska Municipal Attorneys Association.

Who attends the AML Annual Local Government Conference?

- Mayors
- Municipal Managers and Administrators
- City and Borough Clerks
- Municipal Finance Officers
- City-Council Members
- Assembly Members
- State-level Officials
- Business leaders

We would like to invite you to participate as a sponsor at this year's conference. By sponsoring the annual conference, you are making an active choice to support Alaska's local governments – the government closest to Alaskans. Your sponsorship ensures that your organization will be promoted as a champion in the public sector, while simultaneously providing you with targeted and unique business development opportunities.

What makes AML different?

- AML advocates for local governments at the State and Federal level;
- AML's 165 member cities and boroughs collectively represent $2.9 billion in revenue and purchasing power;
- Extended visibility to over 1,000 elected officials and municipal leaders

Why does that uniqueness matter to you?

- No other organization hosts an event that brings together this many municipal decision-makers from every corner of the state to one place, at one time;
- AML's Annual Conference provides opportunities for your organization to interact with influencers that make decisions that can impact your bottom-line and/or organizational goals;
- We save you money! AML's conference is a one stop shop with statewide, local decision-makers in one setting; and
- This is an essential, targeted business development opportunity.

While our members represent diverse communities with varying needs and issues, we know that Alaska is stronger when we work together. We invite you to partner with us as we work to strengthen Alaska's local governments through enhanced training, strategy and advocacy.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration, and we look forward to working with you and your organization to determine the right sponsorship level for you.
